

A Girl like Ananya
written by Karen Hardwicke
published by AVID Language
www.avidlanguage.com/books

Thinking about identity - activities

PSHE / identity talking points

Before you read this book, ask yourself this question. When you have finished reading the book, consider the question again:

Do these two phrases mean the same thing?

1. the deaf girl

2. the girl who is deaf

Is Ananya deaf and that is all?
Or are there many parts to her identity?
Have you changed your mind?

Who am I?

Think about your own identity.

Many things make you who you are.

Write your name and draw yourself in the centre circle, then list 8 things that make up part of your identity.

Helpful hints: Are you kind? Are you loving to your family? Are you sporty, creative, funny, serious?

Sign up for book news and more resources like this: avidlanguage.com/subscribe

A Girl like Ananya
written by Karen Hardwicke
published by AVID Language avidlanguage.com/books